

I Want To Be Your Last Love

(Verse 1)

Sunrise paints the sky in gold, a brand new day begins

But all I think about is you, the way our story spins

I've loved before, felt the sting, of hearts that couldn't stay

But with you, something shifted, love's going my way

(Chorus)

I want to be your last love, the one you hold so dear

The one you whisper to in the dark, and chase away your fear

I want to be the sunrise, the moon that guides your night

The melody that plays forever, your constant guiding light

(Verse 2)

We laugh together, cry together, share the burdens that we hold

We build a world of promises, a story yet untold

The future is an open canvas, masterpiece to write

With you, I know the paint will flow, with love as pure as light

(Chorus)

I want to be your last love, the one you hold so dear

The one you whisper to in the dark, and chase away your fear

I want to be the sunrise, the moon that guides your night

(Verse 3)

I'll hold your hand through stormy skies, and walk with you through rain

I'll be the anchor in your soul, the one who knows your pain

I'll love you with a passion deep, that burns with endless fire

And let our love grow stronger, with each passing desire

(Chorus)

I want to be your last love, the one you hold so dear

The one you whisper to in the dark, and chase away your fear

I want to be the sunrise, the moon that guides your night

The melody that plays forever, your constant guiding light
