

Couldn't Even Kiss Her Goodnight

(Verse 1)

We sat at the table, candles burning bright
I tried to smile. It didn't feel right
Her hand reached out; I took it in mine
My heart was stuck, lost in another time

(Chorus)

I couldn't even kiss her goodnight
All I saw was your face in the dim light
We tried holding hands, but as I suspect
My mind's still on you. We couldn't connect

(Verse 2)

We walked through the park, under the moon's glow
She talked and laughed. I moved pretty slow
Every word she said was an echo of you
If this is love, it felt so untrue

(Chorus)

I couldn't even kiss her goodnight
All I saw was your face in the dim light
We tried holding hands, but as I suspect
My mind's still on you. We couldn't connect

(Verse 3)

It's hard to move on, when the past won't let go
When every new step feels like a shadow
I wish I could give her the love she deserves
But my heart's still entangled in old, familiar curves

(Chorus)

I couldn't even kiss her goodnight
All I saw was your face in the dim light
We tried holding hands, but as I suspect
My mind's still on you. We couldn't connect
