

Lost My Innocence

(Verse 1)

Neon glowed on rain-slicked streets
Lost in shadows were hurried feet
A siren's call whispered my name
A fragile flame with burning shame

(Verse 2)

The smell of smoke and cheap perfume
A single rose in a darkened (shadowed) room
Her touch, like fire, quick and bright
My senses came alive deep in the night

(Chorus)

I lost my innocence to a lady of the night
A star that burned with fleeting light
Her touch a bittersweet delight
Leaving me lost on an endless night

(Verse 3)

The morning awoke with a cruel sunrise
With empty lies behind her eyes
A hollow ache and a bitter taste
My exit determined in hurried haste

(Verse 4)

The sun had risen, a chance to see
Echoes of that evening, still haunting me
Innocence gone, the past not erased
I carry the memory, a billboard of disgrace
(I carry her memory, a bittersweet embrace)

(Chorus)

I lost my innocence to a lady of the night
A star that burned with fleeting light
Her touch a bittersweet delight
Leaving me lost on an endless night
