

She Loved Me More Than Anyone Else

(Verse 1)

I never questioned the way she looked at me
Eyes full of trust, a love I couldn't see
She held my name like a whispered prayer
But I mistook devotion for thin air

(Chorus)

She loved me more than anyone else
More than the stars love the night
But I tore through her like a storm
Left her reaching for sunlight

(Verse 2)

Her laughter used to paint the sky
Now it fades, just a memory's sigh
I ran like a coward from something so pure
Took all her love, left her unsure

(Chorus)

She loved me more than anyone else
More than the stars love the night
But I tore through her like a storm

(Verse 3)

I walked away without turning back
Didn't hear the sound of her heart crack
She stood there with love in her hands
I let it slip away like grains of sand

(Chorus)

She loved me more than anyone else
More than the stars love the night
