

You Never Said You Loved Me

(Verse 1)

I noticed how the kitchen always stayed quiet
How praise came wrapped in tasks and chores
No bedtime tales, no “I’m proud of you”
Just silence behind closing doors

(Chorus)

You never said you loved me
Never whispered, never sang
I built my world from scratch
With my own bare hands
You never said you loved me
I persisted just the same
Determined to succeed
Playing my own kind of game

(Verse 2)

I brought home some trophies and awards in my life
Hoping some pride might break the ice
But you just stared past my accomplishments
As if warmth came at a price you never meant

(Chorus)

You never said you loved me
Never whispered, never sang
I built my world from scratch
With my own bare hands
You never said you loved me
I persisted just the same
Determined to succeed
Playing my own kind of game

(Verse 3)

I heard from your friends that you were so proud
But you never used your voice to speak it aloud
Some days I wished you would relay it to me
That perhaps, you were proud, as you could be

(Chorus)

You never said you loved me
Never whispered, never sang
I built my world from scratch
With my own bare hands
You never said you loved me
I persisted just the same
Determined to succeed
Playing my own kind of game
