

A Single Ornament

(Verse 1)

She opens up the box she's kept since '93
Tissue paper rustling. A whispered memory
Lights are still tangled, stockings still folded
She stops before she starts...as all those years unfold it

(Chorus)

A single little ornament she saves for last each year
A tiny piece of childhood that still draws her near
It sparkles on the branches like a voice she used to know
A single little ornament... her heart won't let it go

(Verse 2)

She lifts the little ornament they made with clumsy hands
Paint smudged on the edges from their early Christmas plans
A simple childhood treasure that her heart can't outgrow
She closes both her eyes... and lets the memories flow

(Chorus)

A single little ornament she saves for last each year
A tiny piece of childhood that still draws her near
It sparkles on the branches like a voice she used to know
A single little ornament... her heart won't let it go

(Bridge)

She wonders if they know it
How she holds them in her heart
How every Christmas moment
Brings her right back to the start

(Final Chorus)

A single little ornament she lifts with quiet grace
A thousand Christmas mornings living in that tiny space
It shines upon the tree like love that always flows
A single little ornament...every heartbeat knows
