

Before the Last Teardrop Falls

Before the Last Teardrop Falls
Maybe I'll know why they're gone
Maybe the sun will shine again
Maybe the love will come again

Before the Last Teardrop Falls
Crying won't hurt so much anymore
Loneliness fades deep into the night
Before the Last Teardrop Falls

The events of September 11th, 2001, have forever changed our lives. On that tragic day, we lost mothers, fathers, sisters and brothers, children, grandparents, friends and lovers. In every waking moment, we are haunted by the memories of those truly special people. Each day we are challenged to continue with our lives and try to make sense of all that has happened. In spite of our tremendous sadness, we must join together in love, compassion and understanding. Someday we'll find true peace in our lives. Before the last teardrop falls.

Before the Last Teardrop Falls
Children won't ask what we've done wrong
Memories won't hurt so much anymore
Long sleepless nights won't knock on our doors

Before the Last Teardrop Falls
Maybe our fears will finally be gone
Maybe we'll find the love once so true
Before the Last Teardrop Falls
