

Placeholder In Your Life

[Verse 1]

Your shoes by the door, still know your shape
Half a cup gone cold, on the table by eight
You say “I’ll come back”, like it’s easy to do
But I read the room and it reads me too

[Pre-Chorus]

I keep your side clear, like I’m saving some space
But the way you move, says I’m not first place

[Chorus]

I’m just a placeholder in your life
One more name that you don’t keep right
I wait, you drift, you say “sometime”
But I’m just a placeholder in your life

[Verse 2]

Your keys hit the bowl, then you’re gone again
I learn your footsteps, like a song I can’t win
You leave your jacket on the back of my chair
Like you might stay longer, but you never stay there

[Pre-Chorus]

I keep your side clear, like I’m saving some space
But the way you move, says I’m not first place

[Chorus]

I’m just a placeholder in your life
One more name that you don’t keep right
I wait, you drift, you say “sometime”
But I’m just a placeholder in your life

[Bridge]

I don’t want the almost. I don’t want the maybe
If you can’t hold me now, then don’t keep calling me baby
I saw the truth, in the way you leave
Love doesn’t look like what you gave to me

[Final Chorus]

I’m just a placeholder in your life
One more name that you don’t keep right
I wait, you drift, you say “sometime”
But I’m done being the pause tonight
I’m just a placeholder in your life
