

Falling Once Again

[Verse 1]

I can't help that I'm falling once again
Every time I think I've finally reached the end
I still cling to the things that used to be
Your memory finds a way to follow me

[Chorus]

I'm falling once again, I won't pretend
No matter how I try, it doesn't end
I keep finding places leading back to you
I'm falling once again. You know it's true

[Verse 2]

I tell myself I'll never fall again
But, shadows linger close around each bend
I chase the dreams we lost along the way
They lead me back to you day after day

[Chorus]

I'm falling once again, I won't pretend
No matter how I try, it doesn't end
I keep finding places leading back to you
I'm falling once again. You know it's true

[Bridge]

I swear I learned a lesson now and then
I patched the pieces; made them whole again
Your name invokes the same old heartache
And leaves me with a longing I can't shake

[Chorus]

I'm falling once again, I won't pretend
No matter how I try, it doesn't end
I keep finding places leading back to you
I'm falling once again. You know it's true
