

Over and Over

[Verse 1]

I keep replaying moments in my head
Every promise whispered in the dark
I tell myself those words were better left unsaid
But they still hit the center of my heart

[Chorus]

Over and over again,
I'm falling deeper than I ever meant
I swear I won't go back, but then
My heart keeps choosing you... over again

[Verse 2]

I've been fighting every reason to let go
I try to drown the memories, but I truly know Something deep inside keeps me holding on Reliving every single moment that is gone

[Chorus]

Over and over again,
I'm falling deeper than I ever meant
I swear I won't go back, but then
My heart keeps choosing you... over again

[Bridge]

I've been hoping time would finally pull me through
But every step ahead turns me back to you
I try to change the story and my point of view
But, my heart still writes your name 'cause I love you

[Chorus]

Over and over again,
I'm falling deeper than I ever meant
I swear I won't go back, but then
My heart keeps choosing you... over again
