

My Heart Hurts

[Verse 1]

I left your hoodie on the chair
Still folded like you care
Your name on my phone burns
Every time the screen turns
I keep my face real still
But the glass tells on me
One hand on the sink
One eye on the door

[Pre-Chorus]

And I try to say I'm fine
But it breaks on the way
Every word in my throat
Wants to run your way

[Chorus]

If I'm telling you the truth
I still reach for you
I still bleed in the dark
With nothing to do
Say you heard it from my mouth
Let it land, let it burn
If I'm telling you the truth.....my heart hurts

[Verse 2]

I pass the café we loved
Don't walk in anymore
I see one cup and two straws
And I feel that old fall
Your laugh in my rearview
Like a song I can't kill
I moved all your things
But you're under my skin

[Pre-Chorus]

And I try to say I'm done
But it shakes on the way
Every locked-up door
Has your shadow in the frame

[Chorus]

If I'm telling you the truth
I still reach for you
I still bleed in the dark
With nothing to do
Say you heard it from my mouth
Let it land, let it burn
If I'm telling you the truth.....my heart hurts

[Bridge]

I wanted to be hard
Wanted clean, wanted calm
But the crack in my chest
Keeps your name in my palms
So take the part that hurts
The one I never name
I'm still not okay
When the dark feels the same

[Chorus]

If I'm telling you the truth
I still reach for you
I still bleed in the dark
With nothing to do
Say you heard it from my mouth
Let it land, let it burn
If I'm telling you the truth.....my heart hurts
